

PUBLIC MEETING

ELECTION INTEGRITY & SECURITY IN WYOMING

Presented by

Secretary of State, Ed Buchanan

Sunday, June 5, 2022

Presentation begins at 2:00 p.m.

*HSC Museum & Cultural Center
700 Broadway, Thermopolis, WY*

Sponsored by the Hot Springs County Clerk's Office

Join Secretary of State Ed Buchanan as he presents prepared remarks and provides an opportunity for citizens to ask questions and learn more about Wyoming's elections and how they can be involved in the process. We will address the most common topics that arose in the 2016 and 2020 elections. We will dispel common myths and discuss how we continue working to improve our elections here in Wyoming.

Election integrity is essential to our republic and to the strength of, and trust in, our democracy. The Wyoming Secretary of State and all 23 Wyoming County Clerks are your first points of contact for true and accurate election information. It is our goal to partner with you to continue to keep Wyoming's elections safe and secure.

Questions? Please call 307-864-3515 or email becky.kersten@hscounty.com

Edward Buchanan was appointed as Wyoming's 22nd Secretary of State in 2018 and elected to the position in the 2018 General Election. As Secretary of State, Mr. Buchanan oversees elections, business incorporation, securities regulation, and is the custodian of the state seal and the bucking horse and rider. He is Wyoming's chief elections officer and serves as a member of the State Loan and Investment Board, State Lands Commission and the State Building Commission.